

DR. NADINE BURKE HARRIS AND SUZY LOFTUS, ESQ RECEIVE 2014 JAMES IRVINE FOUNDATION LEADERSHIP AWARD

Today, it was announced that our founder and CEO Dr. Nadine Burke Harris and COO Suzy Loftus, Esq are recipients of a James Irvine Foundation Leadership Award. In their ninth year, the awards recognize and support individuals who are advancing innovative and effective solutions to significant challenges in California. Nadine and Suzy are being honored for developing an assessment and treatment model for early childhood trauma.

This year, the foundation recognizes six recipients, including three leadership teams. Read more about the other recipients and watch a video of Nadine and Suzy's work here: <http://www.irvine.org/burkeharrisloftus>

We at the Center for Youth Wellness are excited to be honored by the James Irvine Foundation for promoting children's health and well-being. Feel free to share the news with your networks by liking the Facebook posts at <https://www.facebook.com/irvinefoundation> and retweeting the tweets from @IrvineFdn and @CYWSanFrancisco.
