

Center for Youth Wellness brings you the latest news on toxic stress, ACES, and highlights major developments in our organization.

Donate Now »

 Follow Us On Twitter

 Friend Us On Facebook

 Forward To A Friend

May Monthly Update

Announcements

- We're thrilled to announce the arrival of our first ever 2013 CYW Annual Report! Please go to our website > News section > Newsletters to download your copy.
- On Thursday, May 29th 12:30PM-2:30PM, in Sacramento, California, the Alliance for Boys and Men of Color Health Policy Workgroup will host a legislative briefing on Trauma informed

WE ARE HIRING!

Center for Youth Wellness seeks talented new colleagues to add to the team: Learn more about the positions here or download the job descriptions: Director of Clinical Programs, Therapist \(Spanish Speaking\), and Nurse Researcher / Research Assistant!

Please share with your networks and send all inquiries to [hiring@centerforyouthwellness.org](mailto: hiring@centerforyouthwellness.org)!

Community Health and Healing Practices focusing on models that have worked to improve the health and well being of our young men of color.

Perspectives from the CDPH, UCSF, CYW, YouthAlive! and National Compadres Network will be shared at the briefing. CEO Dr. Nadine Burke Harris is honored to speak on behalf of the Center for Youth Wellness.

- As a reminder, each monthly update will be available as a PDF in our Newsletters section within 24 hours of email receipt.
- We are sad to announce the departure of our Director of Clinical Programs, Dr. Todd Renschler. Dr. Renschler built and led the CYW's Clinical programming since 2012. We want to thank Dr. Renschler for his incredible service and wish him the best in his next endeavors.

The CYW welcomes two new staff members to our team!

- Perry Chen, LCSW, plays an essential role as a CYW Therapist. Most recently, he was based in Beijing, China, where he held a private practice. He completed his Masters of Science in Social Work at Columbia School of Social Work. Born in San Francisco, he currently resides in Pacifica, Ca.
- Tia Paneet, RN, PHN, joins the Clinical team as a Wellness Nurse, providing wellness coordination to families. She has extensive experience working in the Southeast Sector of San Francisco as an SFUSD Wellness nurse. She has previously held positions as an advice triage Nurse for Physicians Choice Medical Group and as a Registered Nurse for Women's Community Clinic. In addition to her work, Tia is an avid bicyclist, novice surfer, community volunteer, and is engaged in the arenas of social justice, public health and women's health.

- See the entire team here!

Policy Highlight:

- Read an insightful blog from COO Suzy Loftus: "Survivors Speak: The Power of Crime Victims' Voices to Change Public Safety Policy"

Copyright © 2014 Center for Youth Wellness, All rights reserved.